6 The lover

Lovers are pure and honest with each other. In tarot cards, naze is an assumption of innocence. The background of this card depicts the innocence of Adam and Eve. The Lover card is the 6th card. It is a perfect number by adding 3 first females and 3 first males. The number 6 represents the first stage for union and new birth. The tree behind the woman is the fruit of good and evil, and bang means temptation. The tree that hangs on the back of a man is the tree of life as a medium to tell the prosperity of the gods. This card represents a meeting of a girl and is a very good card for people who are social or in love.

Sometimes this is the card you need for the right person

Encounter: Opportunity of love, happy love, deep emotions and fallout drama, blessed hardships, time of choice, artistic talent, marriage, union, naturally filled emotions, consensus, smooth communication, important interpersonal relationships start successfully, instinct by attraction to people.

Reverse: stupid plan, unsatisfactory skinship love escape, love triangle, confrontation, crisis of interpersonal relationship destruction, neglected love, failed tests, confusion in love and marriage, interference from others, fickleness, unreliable one.

7 TheChariot

The chariot is ready for battle. He rides omnisciently, with heavy armor, but his purpose is to protect those he cares about. The former doesn't always run. It only moves reliably when absolutely necessary. The direction of the two horses is different, but the high UI is held by the one who comes to the front. The pattern engraved on the front of the tank means that he can keep the center and balance in the midst of these and can coordinate the two horses well. He is sure of his desire for success I am aware of it and I am directly measuring that yokeming. He encourages you to test what you have learned and prove your abilities.

Jung: Moving forward with harmonious dissenting opinions, victory of love, love in action, war and victory, victory in litigation, daring progress toward the goal of existence in contradiction with duality or antagonism, overcoming adversity, victory through victory, Opportunities to lead, the need to control the emotions of others.

Reverse: Revenge, litigation and defeat, stepping back in place, arguing at the beginning of the year, sloppy strategy, loss of the former, overwhelming rivals, riots, plans are suddenly broken. Warning about loss of control.

8 Strength

I see a slender and gentle woman, not a strong and strong warrior, and she shows us what true strength is. She is unarmed and unprotected, dressed as if she is a sanjak and masquerading as a giant cat. The infinity mark on her hat indicates sheer power, and tells her that it's mental, not physical. The giant cat in front of her is instincts and desires, and it has a physical mouth. This cat can attract women with its teeth and claws, but it is yielding to women. This means that the spiritual strength is stronger than the physical strength. This woman shows the greatness of her inner power by subduing the times with a soft but firm will.

There is Harmony with each other Self-confidence, willpower to make the impossible possible, actions built on one's own strength, overcoming material power with tenderness Courage and confidence, radiating vital energy, outgoing strength, believing in one's own strength

Reverse: Arbitrary abuse, disharmony, one-sided expression of emotion, lack of patience, a coward who has lost his will, easily surrendered, easily succumbed to temptation, a person possessed by hunger, a lethargic patient, an easily discouraged mindset,

9 The Hermit

An old man is walking quietly through a dry mountain range with a cane in one hand and a cane in the other. He is wise and has a deeper understanding of the world than anyone else. He understands others, but he doesn't want others to understand him. He just silently walks his own path with the lamp of knowledge. Above all, he does his best for the way he is going. However, his efforts for relationships with those around him tend to be somewhat lacking. The lamp he is holding symbolizes the Star of David, which also refers to the crystals obtained through his efforts. He leaves everything behind and concentrates on achieving this. He is a wise man who achieves in-depth in one field.

It's a hermit.

TAE-DOK, WHO IS OVERLY SKEPTICAL, LACK OF UNDERSTANDING OF THE OTHER PARTY, SUPPRESSES THE GANGJEONG-RYUL, IS FIRM IN ONE WORLD ONLY BY HIMSELF, IS TIMID, FEARS FOR DEVELOPMENT, DOES NOT EASILY BECOME STRONG WITH MACHINES, ANALOG PERSON

Reverse: Concealment, camouflage. Inflexible, intolerant, flimsy solutions, very vigilant. Hidden enemy: Sticky poverty, lack of concentration, frivolous or restrained love, very vigilant and not progressing, unnecessarily delayed to the outside world. Korean mind.

10 The Wheel of fortune

The eagle, the warrior, the ox, and the lion surrounding the wheel of the chariot mean Matthew, Luke, Mark, and John, the four authors of the Bible, in isochronous meaning the four elements of air, water, fire, and earth. This signifies everything that makes up the world, and the wheel in the middle is rolling in it. The Sphinx means many choices that come from fate. Destiny could have gone in a different direction depending on this choice. x means good circulation and flow, sometimes fate, it is also used in the meaning of reunion or relationship.

Jung: Fateful encounters and opportunities, many times run out, good timing, unexpected luck, favorable change. Unplanned events, fate, reaching the end of the problem, compared to the present. If it's good, it's going in the wrong direction, and new hope is born from change.

Reverse: succumbing to fate, passive in unexpected events, smirking, falling fortune, meeting the wrong time, need, being at a disadvantage, unfortunate event, unexpected outcome, interruption or reversal of the continuum of work, Refusal to change, unexpected misfortune. Breath.

11 Justice

The sword and scales are typical symbols of justice. The scale indicates that there is an objective standard, and it indicates that he is capable of objective explanations in the decision-making process. He is the power to realize what he has measured in terms of his emotional part because he wears a difficult situation. A law that is not implemented means nothing. It represents the standard of justice and the ability to realize black. Behind his back, a purple curtain between the two flags indicates that he must remain neutral.

Quick and accurate judgment based on the best guess, looking for love rationally, Gyun-eong small and public. Administrator, neutral position, Jo Eul-seong Jihacom, rationalizing the role. Positive intentions and actions, reasonable and fair pay, fairness that was not desired. I can also

12 The Hanged Man

A person hanging upside down is not tied very tightly. This means he can get out of the current situation at any time his head

The back halo shows the potential for his character to mature, Et-LJ, he is a man. He is also a person who can see the world in a different way from others.

However, he is hanging on and means rebirth. He is a person who thinks it is the best for himself and goes the right way even if others do not recognize his rebirth. When this card comes out, it is most important not only to focus on real problems, but also to persevere and look at the future from a different perspective.

Enduring love, standing still in life, learning from painful experiences, dedication, times of trial, times of reversal of attitudes toward life, indifference and boredom, periods of rest between big events, giving up for a higher purpose, rebirth, love that begins with compassion

Reverse: meaningless regeneration, not making the necessary effort, failure to produce fruit by overreacting, selfishness, time wasting life, lack of will to make an effort, false prophecy, narrow point of view, immersed only in the assets, the idea of trying to satisfy the public with the right effort.

13 Death

If you only accept the straightforward meaning of the word gramophone, you will never fully understand it. It is not the final extinction to be feared, but an essential part of a cycle for village prosperity. If the flower does not die and falls to the ground, it will not sprout and bear no new fruit. A being with a scythe frees it from the scythe. The rising sun beyond the horizon shows that it has life for new change, regeneration and transformation to the party

The buried people lost their wealth and status at this time of change.

It just shows that they are old and throw away.

Jung: A breakup and a new love, a surprising event that changes one's own will, unexpected change and loss, knight revival, a familiar situation or a bell of friendship, a situation where loss is in progress, a sign that the end is coming soon, disease Possibility of overtone, removal of old rules, escape from slump
